Justin Padron

Justin Padron's adventure as a Dragon began when his family moved to Southlake in 2002. Those who knew him back then will tell you his radiant personality and big heart were evident from the beginning and, they knew he was destined for greatness. He is remembered as an inspiring leader both on and off the football field because of his dedication to those around him. Justin carries with him strong faith, enthusiasm for life, and an unending desire for excellence. He holds himself to the highest standards and leads others by example. After graduating from Texas Wesleyan University in 2012, his career took him to San Antonio. As soon as he could, he brought his young family back to DFW. In addition to his busy career, he has constantly kept himself involved volunteering for various

Dragon organizations that include Dragon Youth Football, the Dragon Classic, and Dragon Athletic Hall of Honor.
